- 11.4. Export Restrictions. The Additional Software has been classified by the US Government as exportable under License Exception TSU. Accordingly, the following terms apply: You agree that you will not export or re-export the Additional Software, any or any part of it, or any process or service that is the direct product of the Additional Software (the "Restricted Components"), to any country, person or entity subject to U.S. export restrictions. You specifically agree not to export or re-export any of the Restricted Components (a) to any country to which the U.S. has embargoed or restricted the export of goods or services, that currently include Cuba, Iran, Iraq, Libya, North Korea, Sudan and Syria, or to any national of any such country, wherever located, who intends to transmit or transport the Restricted Components back to such country; (b) to any person or entity who you know or have reason to know will utilize the Restricted Components in the design, development or production of nuclear, chemical or biological weapons; or (iii) to any person or entity who has been prohibited from participating in U.S. export transactions by any federal agency of the U.S. government. You warrant and represent that neither the Bureau of Export Administration nor any other U.S. federal agency has suspended, revoked or denied your export privileges.
- 11.5. Anti-Corruption. You agree that neither you nor your personnel have received or been offered any illegal or improper bribe, kickback, payment, gift, or thing of value from we or any of your personnel in connection with this Agreement. Reasonable gifts and entertainment provided in the ordinary course of business do not violate the restriction described in the preceding sentence. If you learn of any violation of the restriction set forth in this Section, you will use reasonable efforts to notify our Chief Financial Officer promptly.
- 11.6. Governing Law. If you maintain your headquarters in North America, Central America, South America, Asia (other than the People's Republic of China), or Australia, the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia govern all matters arising under or related to this Agreement, without regard to conflicts of law principles and, subject to Section 11.7 (Dispute Resolution), the state and federal courts located in the County of Fairfax, Virginia shall have exclusive jurisdiction and venue to adjudicate all disputes, claims, questions or disagreements arising from or related to this Agreement, or a breach of this Agreement ("Dispute") arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. If you maintain your headquarters in a country located in Europe, the Middle East or Africa, the laws of England and Wales govern all matters arising under or related to this Agreement, without regard to conflicts of law principles, and, subject to Section 11.7 (Dispute Resolution), the courts located in London, England shall have exclusive jurisdiction and venue to adjudicate all Disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. If you maintain your headquarters in the People's Republic of China, the laws of the People's Republic of China will govern all matters arising under or related to this Agreement, without regard to conflicts of law principles and, subject to Section 11.7 (Dispute Resolution), the courts located in Beijing, China shall have exclusive jurisdiction and venue to adjudicate all Disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. The parties consent to the exclusive exercise by such courts of personal jurisdiction over them and each party waives any objection it might otherwise have to venue, personal jurisdiction, inconvenience of forum, or any similar or related doctrine. The parties agree that the provisions of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods do not apply to this Agreement.

- 11.7. Dispute Resolution. If there is any Dispute, the parties agree to attempt to settle the Dispute through good faith consultation and negotiation. If the parties cannot resolve a Dispute through internal negotiation and escalation, either party may initiate arbitration for final resolution of the Dispute by notifying the other party in writing. If you have your headquarters in the United States, (a) the parties will use the then-current Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association to conduct the arbitration; and (b) the arbitration will take place exclusively in the County of Fairfax, Virginia. If you are headquartered outside the United States, (i) the arbitration shall be administered by the International Centre for Dispute Resolution in accordance with its then-current International Arbitration Rules; and (ii) the arbitration will take place exclusively in London, England. In either case, the parties will attempt to select a single arbitrator by mutual agreement. If they are unable to do so, the parties may request the appointment of a neutral arbitrator that (A) has at least eight years' experience in technology law, or (B) is a retired judge. No written or oral statements of position or offers of settlement either party has made in the course of the Dispute resolution process will (1) be offered into evidence for any purpose, or (2) constitute an admission or waiver of rights by either party. The arbitrator will have no authority to award punitive damages or exceed the contractual limitations on awards set forth in this Agreement. The arbitrator may apportion some of a party's legal fees to the other party based the extent to which the Party prevailed. Otherwise, each party will bear its own costs and expenses and an equal share of the arbitrator's and administrative fees of the arbitration. The arbitrator will (1) issue a judgment in writing, (2) sign it, and (3) include a reasoned opinion with findings of fact and a breakdown as to specific claims. The judgment of the arbitrator will be final and binding. Either party may enter it in any court with jurisdiction. This Section shall not be construed to prevent a party from instituting formal judicial proceedings to: (A) avoid the expiration of any applicable limitations period, (B) preserve a superior creditor position, or (C) seek injunctive relief to prevent an irreparable harm, including harm caused by a breach of confidentiality or a violation of intellectual property rights.
- 11.8. Severability; Waiver. If a court of competent jurisdiction finds any provision in this Agreement invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of this Agreement will remain valid and in full force and effect, and the court or the parties may modify the invalid or unenforceable provision to the extent required to allow its enforcement in a manner that most closely represents the intentions of the parties in entering into this Agreement. The waiver of any breach or default of this Agreement will not constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach or default and will not act to amend or negate the rights of the waiving party.
- 11.9. Assignment. Neither party may assign any of its rights or delegate any of its obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party, which consent the other party will not unreasonably withhold or delay; except that, such consent is not required if (a) either party, upon written notice to the other party, assigns the Agreement to an Affiliate of, or a successor to, such party, including an assignment to an unrelated entity in connection with a merger or acquisition with, or a sale of all or substantially all of its assets to, such other separate entity; or (b) we assign our right to receive payment. This Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.
- 11.10. Notices. All notices, requests, demands, or other communications required under this Agreement will be in writing and sent to the address each party specifies to the other party. Notices shall be deemed effective (a) upon delivery if delivered personally or by overnight delivery by an established national delivery service, or (b) five (5) days after deposit in the mail, postage prepaid, certified or registered, return receipt requested to the address or to such other address as one party may specify to the other party in writing after the Effective Date. If any party does not acknowledge receipt of any certified mail, then notice by facsimile, email, or other electronic medium of transmission, followed by first class mailing, shall be deemed notice under this Agreement.
- 11.11. Relationship of the Parties. Each party is an independent contractor under this Agreement and this Agreement does not establish any partnership, joint venture, employment, franchise or agency relationship between the parties. Neither party will have the power to bind the other party or incur obligations on the other's behalf without the other party's prior written consent, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement. Each party will be solely responsible for payment of all compensation owed to its employees, as well as employment-related taxes.
- 11.12. Non-Solicitation. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of one (1) year after the termination for any reason, neither party will hire or attempt to hire or solicit any employee, representative, or independent contractor of the other party, assist in such hiring or solicitation by anyone else, or encourage any such person or entity to terminate such employment or relationship.
- 11.13. No Third Party Beneficiaries. There are no third party beneficiaries to this Agreement.
- 11.14. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and all documents incorporated by reference constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to its subject matter, and supersede and replace all prior or contemporaneous discussions, negotiations, understandings, and agreements, whether written or oral, regarding the subject matter. No alteration, amendment, waiver, cancellation or any other change to any term or condition of this Agreement will be valid or binding on either party unless it is in writing and manually signed by both parties. The parties agree that any term or condition stated in a purchase order or in any other order documentation is void.

- 11.15. Headings; Construction. Headings used in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and will not modify the meaning of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. If an ambiguity or question of intent arises with respect to any provision of this Agreement, the Agreement will be construed as if drafted jointly by the parties and no presumption or burden of proof will arise favoring or disfavoring either party by virtue of authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement. The words “include,” “includes” and “including” shall be deemed to be followed by the phrase “without limitation” or the phrase “but not limited to”. The word “will” shall be construed to have the same meaning and effect as the word “shall,” and vice versa.
- 11.16. Publicity. Neither party may issue press releases relating to this Agreement without the other party’s prior written consent, which consent neither party will unreasonably withhold or delay. With your consent, we may include your name or logo in our list of customers. We will comply with your trademark usage guidelines in doing so. Also, from time to time, we may ask you to approve a joint press release or other electronic or online materials. You will not unreasonably withhold or delay your consent to such materials.
- 11.17. English Language Governs. This Agreement is in the English language only, which version will control in all respects. No translation of this Agreement, if any, into any other language will be of any force or effect in the interpretation of this Agreement or in a determination of the intent of either party.
